General terms of service:

1) Product prices and discounts. We count total price of products without shipping price, shipping price is calculated separately in accordance of total weight of your order and terms of shipping company and it is not subject to any discount. If you order products from different catalogs, in most of the cases we will provide you additional discount on all your current orders with us, but we should review every case separately to approve such type of discount. Discount is counted on your current order with us, however, if you are returning customer who is making smaller size orders, we may assign you special discount in price that excess the standard discount for the class of your orders.

2) Order requests. Please send your order details to shop@crafts.ec and we will send you an invoice and notify you about estimated time when product will be ready. Samples and small size orders we send within just 1-2 business days after receipt of the payment. We always have a good stock of products and the time of production usually is not more than 1-3 weeks, but a lot depends on amount of products you order with us. For big size orders the production time may take up to 1-2 months.

3) We accept bank wires, paypal, moneygram, western union, escrow payments, L/C. Any other payment method is subject to discuss. For paypal payments over US$ 2500 processing fee 5% apply. Escrow payments or payments by L/C are valid for orders bigger than US$ 5000 and you pay corresponding escrow fees. We may use <http://escrow.com> or any other reputable escrow company on your choice. But we may reject using your escrow option if we feel it is not secure enough.

5) Exact items. With given catalog you can choose exact models and corresponding amounts for the products you are purchasing. The products are handmade, therefore minor differences in details and product sizes are possible.

6) Custom orders. If you need tagua carving of different kind, please send us photo and desired amount and we will send you the details. Certainly we accept custom orders, such as we can put some specific name or name of the city, etc, on products. But it applies only for orders with class C and D, and additional fee apply for custom type of orders. Please confirm details with us.

- 7) Final prices. We don't take any handling fee, so there are no any hidden fees at all. Price for packing, shipping, and any kind of handling work is included into the price of product. You pay the price of products and exact price of shipping. Shipping price depends on shipping type you choose, total weight of order and your location. Certainly we will give you estimated shipping price upon reception of order details from you, but the final price will be adjusted in moment of sending.
- 8) Tax duty. Exportation from Ecuador is free. If the given product and purchased amount of products is subject to any importation taxes in your country, this is your obligation to pay them. Please consult local authorities in your country.
- 9) Shipping methods. For small and medium orders we usually use certified airmail or FEDEX. With FEDEX we have a discount of 40% in comparison to their regular rates, you benefit from this discount as you pay exact shipping price the transportation company takes. Certainly upon corresponding request we may use your FEDEX account as well. FEDEX is doing all custom work and give you total amount of taxes you need to pay them, if applicable. Shipping time by FEDEX usually doesn't take more than 2-3 business days for USA and 3-5 days for Europe and the rest of countries. Certified airmail is still cost cheaper, but it takes visible longer time (normally delivery time up to 15-25 days). We do formal complain if you are not receiving order within 1 month, you should send us corresponding request if you are not receiving order after one month since shipping date. Other shipping methods such as air or sea freight are possible, the shipping price starts from US$ 2-4 per kg, depending on size of your order and destination country, we are giving conditions upon request, but normally there is sense to use them for big orders only (which weight at least 100 kg).
- 10) Pictures of products. If you would like to see full-size high-quality pictures of the products with corresponding measures, please visit website <http://www.handicraftswholesale.com/> and click on corresponding pictures.
- 11) Legal contract. By placing order using this catalog of product you are entering in formal contract with C2A Enterprise, registered in Quito, Ecuador at 2004, registration ID is 1722132345001. Our contact email shop@crafts.ec Mailing address C2A Enterprise, casilla 17-23-12, Sangolqui, Pichincha, Ecuador and contact phone number is +593 985166689.
